The fourth annual Tee It Up To Celebrate Life golf tournament was held on June 25th, and 126 golfers spent a picture-perfect day at the beautiful Sonoma Golf Club, an annual stop on the senior PGA tour. It was our second tournament on this course and the perfectly manicured links produced many excellent scores.

There was plenty of competition for the closest to the hole and longest drive contests for women and men, although no one won either of the two hole-in-one contests, which had prizes of $20,000 and a new car lease.

Spectacular masks, costumed characters, bubbling fountains – was it Marin or St. Mark’s Square? It was hard to tell, as the Marin Center was transformed into a Venetian courtyard for the 12th annual Stepping Out To Celebrate Life fundraiser on September 29th.

Guests enjoyed cocktails, an oyster bar and savory hors d’oeuvres against a Venetian canal backdrop. Huge masks – hand-decorated by artist-volunteers, Italian statuary and stately columns greeted the elegantly dressed crowd. Actors in eighteenth century garb

Under the warm autumn sun, 108 tennis players enjoyed a challenging morning on the courts at the Marin Tennis Club and Dominican University. By noon, when the luncheon guests joined the festivities at Rally To Celebrate Life, our 16th annual tournament was filled to capacity. The event, held on September 17th, honored 19 Bay Area organizations that received To Celebrate Life grants totaling $384,000 in 2007.

The afternoon found the 200-plus attendees at center court sipping sparkling wine donated by
The golfers were generous beyond their green fees, with a record amount of money raised in the silent and live auctions. Perhaps the sumptuous hors d’oeuvres and buffet dinner encouraged the bidding, along with a great job by event chair and auctioneer John Randazzo. John and executive committee members Rick Barbaria, Tom Yacko and Mike Belling, with a fantastic volunteer team headed by Chuck and Sallie Wood, made the event seamless for all the guests.

The most important feature of the tournament is the money that is raised to support the grants of To Celebrate Life Breast Cancer Foundation. This year the event netted 65% more than last year! “The tournament has grown during the past four years,” noted John Randazzo. “Not only in terms of the funds generated, but each year it becomes even more popular as a fun event for everyone.”

We thank the donors, sponsors, volunteers, and the Tee It Up To Celebrate Life committees for their hard work and dedication. You have helped to create a golf tournament that is now another eagerly awaited, successful signature event.

“The prime venue of the Sonoma Golf Club, the great food, camaraderie, and the generosity of the golfers and the many sponsors, make this tournament one that is truly special.”

– Patrick Woods To Celebrate Life Board member and Tee It Up Board Liaison mingled and chatted, further enhancing the mood for the magical night to come.

A quintet of opera singers performing Masquerade from Phantom of the Opera opened the fashion show, along with a pair of young jester-gymnasts whose handstands and backbends impressed the audience. Then 34 breast cancer survivors, including one man, took to the runway in a parade of fabulous fashions from sportswear to formalwear. Italian runways have never seen anything like these beautiful and courageous models who were cheered on by the love and good wishes of family, friends and supporters. “It was a privilege to be part of the show,” says model Virginia Davidson, who has already vowed “to make this dream come true for models in 2008.”

The delectable dinner prepared by Wine Valley Catering was followed by a fast-paced live auction brimming with trips to Hawaii, Alaska, Mexico, a classic Polar Bear Expedition to Manitoba or a cruise to the Galapagos Islands, a catered-in-your-home dinner for ten, a Land Rover LR2 lease, wine library and a wonderful spectrum of other tantalizing prizes.

Supporting this annual celebration were co-presenting sponsors Brayton-Purcell, Lawyers for People; Kaiser Permanente and Marin Cancer Institute, a Program of Marin General Hospital. Joining them were a host of other generous sponsors, some long-term, others new.

The excitement continued late into the evening as guests and models cut loose and kicked it up to the high energy, get-down and soulful sounds of Pride and Joy. Yes, those who experienced Stepping Out 2007 were not only transported to Venice, but to a place that is truly out of this world, a place where people really do Celebrate Life!
“Over the years, Brayton Purcell has been an avid contributor and supporter for finding a cure for cancer. The opportunity to be a Presenting Sponsor for Stepping Out To Celebrate Life is just one way we can show our dedication to help raise funds for Bay Area non-profit organizations helping fight breast cancer. The yearly event is always beautifully orchestrated, very inspiring and we are proud to be a part of it.”

— Alan R. Brayton, Brayton Purcell, LLP

“Gwen and I feel very close to the annual Stepping Out To Celebrate Life celebration since our involvement with the first event supporting one of our very best friends. Our Aston Martin/Jaguar/Land Rover associates look forward to attending each year and are always so impressed with the phenomenal attitude of the survivors. We are committed to being part of this wonderful cause for the long term.”

— Tom Price,
Aston Martin/Jaguar/Land Rover Marin, A Price Family Dealership

“Marin General Hospital has partnered with Stepping Out for the last 12 years and we are proud to continue our support. We recognize the incredible value the organization and event gives to breast cancer survivors to help them move forward with their lives.”

— Linda Tavaszi, Executive Director
Physician Services and Marin Cancer and Heart Institutes

“Stepping Out is one of the best Marin events of the year. It is a night to see the real stars of our community walk the runway with confidence, poise, laughter and hope. It is a privilege to share in the memories created that night for the participants, their families and all the women and men they represent. The most heartwarming moment is seeing the physicians escorting their patients on the stage ... they couldn't be more proud and encouraged to continue to do their special work. Thank you to the entire To Celebrate Life family, you truly are amazing and a true inspiration.”

— Pat Kendall, Medical Group Administrator
Kaiser Permanente San Rafael Medical Center

“This was our second annual evening with the good folks of Stepping Out. We bought a table last year due to friends' recent challenges with breast cancer and were truly moved by the courage of the models and the spirit of joy, fun and community. We are grateful for all the efforts of this organization. It is a pleasure and opportunity to contribute to such a worthy cause.”

— Karen & Tom Marx, The Marx Group
Gloria Ferrer Caves & Vineyards, and enjoying tasty hors d’oeuvres provided by luncheon caterer Olive & Vine. Guests were wowed by local tennis pros Pam Nelson and Tarrin Dougery, who partnered for a thrilling round of tennis with the two tournament winners, Linda Roland and Jennifer Bonvechio. A sumptuous lunch and informal fashion show followed, as a bevy of beautiful models – all breast cancer survivors – showed off the latest tennis and golf attire from Net Works and Link Works. No wonder Rally continues to be a sell-out event!

Again this year, Rally was privileged to have Jackson’s and Julie and Mitchell Kertzman as presenting sponsors. Joining them were Wine, Women & Song® and Vicki and John Kryzanowski, as title sponsors.

Shoppers bid on a tempting array of silent auction items contributed by over 250 generous donors, all in the name of those living with breast cancer.

The Rally executive committee is tremendously grateful to everyone who helped make this day of hope and inspiration a huge success — sponsors, donors and guests alike. And to the 30 volunteers who worked so hard all year long to make Rally such a memorable experience… you are the BEST!!!

“Rally has become more than an annual fundraiser. It is anticipated with fond memories of its past successes and with bright expectations as it becomes more dynamic each year. These are the feelings of the participants who enjoy the day, as well as the committee who works all year toward its success. It is a treasured ingredient in Marin’s community of giving.”

Our Generous Community

We are so very fortunate to receive this valued community support which enables us in our quest to enrich the lives of women and men living with breast cancer.

Carola Detrick hosted a second sale of HCL leather goods this year with a percentage of proceeds benefiting To Celebrate Life.

For the third consecutive year, Harbor Point Charitable Foundation has named To Celebrate Life as a beneficiary of Esurance Tennis Classic, held at Harbor Point Tennis Club during the month of October.

Ko’ze, a women’s apparel store in Tiburon, designated 50% of the proceeds from all pink merchandise sold during October to benefit To Celebrate Life.

LaCoppa Coffee (formerly Bonavita Coffee & Tea) is our official coffee provider for all To Celebrate Life events. In addition, they contribute $1 from the sale of every pound of their La Donna blend coffee.

Lucy activewear held a seven-store, one-day promotion on Saturday, October 20, benefiting To Celebrate Life by donating 10% of the proceeds to us, and also giving their customers an additional 10% discount.

Jonathan Marx, a realtor of At Home in Marin continues to donate $250 in the name of every seller or buyer that closes a transaction with him, under a program he has named "Beneficence." To Celebrate Life is on the list of charitable nonprofits which his program benefits.

The Meadow Club Women’s Golf Association held a charity golf tournament – “2 Jacks and 2 Jills.” All proceeds, including entry fees and sponsorship of individual holes, were designated for To Celebrate Life.

Oakland Athletics Community Fund presented To Celebrate Life with a beautiful award – “The Gift of Faith Award” – named in memory of broadcaster Faith Fancher. This is particularly meaningful to us as Faith was a Stepping Out model. Accompanying this award was a substantial cash donation that will be added to funds being granted in 2008.

The Breast of Broadway and Wine, Women & Song® are two musical evenings produced by singer/musician Susan Zelinsky to benefit breast cancer organizations, including To Celebrate Life.

Volunteer Kickoff Meeting

January 22, 2008
Acqua Hotel, Mill Valley

As an all-volunteer organization, we welcome your participation. We have unlimited opportunities for you to get involved in whatever area you wish, and all skills are valued. Volunteering for To Celebrate Life is fun, gratifying, and you’ll make friends for life.

Join us at 7 PM on January 22, 2008 to discover how you can make a difference in the lives of people living with breast cancer. You’ll learn how you can participate in our organization, including volunteering for our three major fundraisers. You can work on planning committees or help at the events – whatever your schedule permits. We welcome both long term “To Celebrate Lifers” and new volunteers. This evening is for you! For questions: info@tocelebratelifefoundation.org or call 415/455-5882.

We hope you’ll join our team in 2008!

Thank You

In gratitude for service as Teri Dowling, a valued Board member, steps down.

We salute all of our volunteers for helping us to enrich the lives of women and men living with breast cancer. Your dedicated participation allows To Celebrate Life Breast Cancer Foundation to generously provide grants each year to those nonprofits providing support programs, early detection screening, emotional and educational services.

To Celebrate Life Legacy Society ensures ongoing support

To Celebrate Life Breast Cancer Foundation launched its “To Celebrate Life Legacy Society” in Fall 2006 and this small but mighty group is beginning to grow. Many charities receive a good deal of their endowment funds from private estates. Patrick Woods, Legacy Society member, To Celebrate Life board member and Marin Community Foundation Vice President for Philanthropic Services notes that in deciding to give to a legacy society “people will know that something which has meant so much to them will continue.” Alice Tanner, To Celebrate Life board member, describes joining the Legacy Society as “heartwarming to know that after I’m gone the tremendous work that To Celebrate Life does for the breast cancer community and its families will continue.” Alice’s mother died of breast cancer at the age of 48, when Alice was 12. “In 1969 my mother didn’t have the support services available to her that are available today. I know she would have loved To Celebrate Life and the work they do. She would be amazed at how ‘out of the closet’ breast cancer is today and would have appreciated not being so alone with this disease. As a breast cancer survivor, I’m honored to be able to contribute to an organization so well-managed, that gives so much. I’m pleased to help them carry on when I’m not here to volunteer or write the check personally. The only thing better would be when To Celebrate Life and the organizations it funds are no longer needed.”

To Celebrate Life Legacy Society recognizes and honors individuals and families who, through their estate plans, have invested in the future of To Celebrate Life Breast Cancer Foundation. Recognized gifts include bequest provisions in a will or trust, gifts of life insurance, life income arrangements, lead trusts and beneficiary designations made with retirement assets or insurance policies. We are extremely appreciative of those who have launched our Legacy Society and invite you to consider joining this special group. For more information call 415/455-5882.
